

Board Resolutions - Delegation of Authority

We, being all of the directors of the (Company or {org.name}), are in favour of the following resolutions:

Background

1. The NDIS Practice Standards require that there is a documented system of delegated responsibility and authority to another suitable person in the absence of a usual position holder in place.

Resolutions

Principals/Directors

1. The director(s) of the Company (Board) hereby delegate the day to day responsibility for the operation of the business of the Company to {org.primary_contact.name} and {org.signatory.name} as Principals/Directors of the Company. Without limiting the terms of the delegation, the delegation is in respect of the specific responsibilities, scope and limitations set out in the Principals/Directors Position Description and is otherwise unlimited and without limitation, except for such matters which are non-delegable by the Board. The role reports to the Board.
2. The Principals/Directors may:
 - a. delegate some or all of their duties and responsibilities to other qualified persons as they see fit (including those set out in the Principals/Directors Position Description);
 - b. create and delegate the roles reasonably required to successfully operate the business and provide high quality support and services to the Company's Clients (including NDIS participants). Such roles could include Support Workers, Support Coordinators, Registered Nurse and others as is reasonably required based on the scope of services and supports provided by the Company and the size and nature of the Company's operation; and
 - c. document those roles and responsibilities in writing in the accompanying Delegations Register, but is not required to do so.
3. In the absence of {org.primary_contact.name} and {org.signatory.name} for any reason, the Board hereby delegates the day to day responsibility for the operation of the business of the Company to:
 - a. the Company's other key management personnel collectively; or
 - b. if no such key management personnel exist or they are otherwise unavailable, unwilling or unqualified to take on the role, such qualified person as reasonably determined by the Board.

Unless otherwise agreed between {org.primary_contact.name} and {org.signatory.name} and the Board, the delegation in respect of the role will be on a temporary basis and shall operate until such time as {org.primary_contact.name} and {org.signatory.name} returns to the position or until such time as the board otherwise determines.

Without limiting the terms of the delegation, the delegation is in respect of the specific responsibilities, scope and limitations set out in the Principals/Directors Position Description (and is otherwise unlimited and without limitation, except for such matters which are non-delegable by the director(s)).

4. In making a determination under clause 3 in relation to the position of temporary Principals/Directors, the board shall consider the requirements of the Governance Policy and the Principals/Directors Position Description.

Delegations Register

5. Without limiting the terms of the above delegations but for ease of reference, the Board hereby approves the delegations set out in the accompanying Register of Delegations and permits the Principals/Directors to make such amendments to such Delegations Register as the Principals/Directors reasonably determines.

General

6. This document may be signed in any one or more counterparts and all of which together shall constitute one and the same document.
