Each practitioner undertakes ongoing professional development and receives clinical supervision.
Behaviour support plans are developed with the participant and their support network, based on assessment, and reduce and eliminate restrictive practices.
BEHAVIOUR SUPPORT PLAN DEVELOPMENT
An interim behaviour support plan is developed within one month where there is risk to the participant or others.
A comprehensive behaviour support plan is developed based on a functional behaviour assessment.
The plan is reviewed as required and at least annually, and progress is monitored using data (ABC / incident data).
MONITORING AND REPORTING THE USE OF RESTRICTIVE PRACTICES
Regulated restrictive practices are used only in accordance with an authorisation and a behaviour support plan.
The use of a regulated restrictive practice is reported to the NDIS Commission each month and after any unauthorised use.
