

Letter of Engagement — Casual Employee

VERSION 1.0	EFFECTIVE 	NEXT REVIEW 	OWNER 	APPROVED BY
-----------------------	-----------------------------------	-------------------------------------	-------------------------------	-------------------------------------

Private and confidential. Complete the highlighted fields, attach the position description and any schedule, and issue on letterhead. This is a template — obtain your own advice on the applicable award, pay rate and governing law.

DETAILS

DATE
EMPLOYEE NAME
EMPLOYEE ADDRESS
Dear ,

Letter of engagement

I am pleased to offer you casual employment with ("the employer") on the terms and conditions set out in this letter.

1. Position

- Your employment is on a casual basis, as required. Each occasion you work is a separate contract of employment that ends at the end of that engagement.
- As a casual employee there is no guarantee of ongoing or regular work.
- The duties of the role are in the attached position description. On each occasion you work you will perform those duties and any other duties the employer reasonably assigns, having regard to your skills, training and experience, at locations reasonably directed by the employer.

2. Terms and conditions

Unless more generous provisions are set out in this letter or the attached schedule, your terms and conditions are those in the and applicable legislation, including the National Employment Standards in the Fair Work Act 2009. Neither the award nor any applicable legislation is incorporated into your contract of employment. Your employment may be terminated at any time by notice, to take effect at the end of your current engagement.

3. Remuneration

- You will be paid per hour, including the applicable casual loading.
- You will be paid to your nominated bank account.

- The employer will make superannuation contributions in accordance with the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992.
- Your remuneration will be reviewed annually and may be increased at the employer's discretion.

4. Your obligations

You will: perform all duties to the best of your ability; use your best endeavours to promote and protect the interests of the employer; and follow all reasonable and lawful directions, including complying with policies and procedures as amended from time to time (these are not incorporated into your contract of employment).

5. Confidentiality

You will not, during or after your employment, except with the employer's consent, as required by law or in performing your duties, use or disclose confidential information relating to the employer's business, including client lists, client details and pricing structures.

6. Variation, governing law and entire agreement

These terms may only be amended by written agreement signed by both parties. This letter is governed by the law of . The terms in this letter constitute the entire agreement and replace any prior understanding.

If you have questions, please contact on . You can also obtain information about minimum terms and conditions from the Fair Work Ombudsman on 13 13 94 or at fairwork.gov.au.

To accept this offer, please return a signed and dated copy of this letter by .

ISSUED BY

NAME

POSITION

DATE

ACCEPTANCE BY THE EMPLOYEE

I have read and understood this letter and accept the offer of employment from on the terms set out in it. I understand that each engagement constitutes a separate contract of employment.

PRINT NAME

SIGNATURE

DATE