PURPOSE AT A GLANCE

This policy explains how [redacted] decides whether supported independent living (SIL) is right for a participant, prepares a Roster of Care and quote, enters into a Services Agreement (SIL), and — where SIL is delivered in specialist disability accommodation — puts documented arrangements in place with the participant and the SDA provider.

1. Purpose and scope

2. Policy aims

- where [redacted] SIL supports, documented arrangements are in place with each participant and each specialist disability accommodation provider covering: how the participant's concerns about the dwelling are communicated and addressed; how potential conflicts involving participants are managed; how changes to circumstances or support needs are agreed and communicated; in shared living, how vacancies are filled (taking each participant's needs, preferences and situation into account); and how behaviours of concern that may put tenancies at risk are managed.

 orates with a participant over 18 who is considering SIL to determine whether SIL should be provided, considering: the participant's goals for their home and living arrangements; the support needed to live as independently as possible; whether alternative supports (such as Individualised Living Options or personal care) would be a better option; whether the participant has significant support needs requiring person-to-person support; and the supports currently received. All NDIS-funded supports must meet the reasonable-and-necessary criteria.

4. Service Agreement (SIL)

[redacted] into a Services Agreement (SIL) with the participant to provide supported independent living services.

5. SIL in specialist disability accommodation

Where SIL is delivered in SDA, [redacted] into an SDA and SIL Collaboration Agreement with the SDA provider to establish and maintain good working relationships. [redacted] wleges that the participant has the right to choose and change their SIL provider regardless of any link between the SDA provider and [redacted] has security of tenure in the SDA enrolled dwelling. As between the SDA provider and [redacted] DA provider is responsible for house rules, for managing the participant's concerns about the dwelling, for managing conflicts involving participants (except those relating solely to SIL delivery), and for how vacancies are filled; and the parties are collectively responsible for managing behaviours of concern that may put tenancies at risk.

6. Delivering SIL

SIL supports are delivered in accordance with the Roster of Care and the Client Support Plan, with house rules developed with the people who live there, and are reviewed with the participant as their needs change. Supports are person-centred, based on the least intrusive options, and consistent with the Choice, Advocacy and Control and Provision of Supports policies.
